

DETANGLING THE SUPERNANNY & NANNY 911: ABC AND FOX TV INTERVIEW CHILD PSYCHOLOGIST DR. ROBERT KLINE

Nationally recognized child psychologist Dr. Robert Kline has been interviewed on ABC and Fox affiliates trying to detangle the new primetime reality shows --- the Supernanny & Nanny 911. Dr. Kline will be interviewed after each Supernanny show during the month of February.

- Are the new TV shows the Supernanny & Nanny 911 helping or hurting?
- Do these TV shows give mom's the guilt complex?
- Do parents need more discipline tactics?
- Can parents really learn from reality shows?
- Parents needs help, but are these the right shows?

One mother from Kansas City said, "Wow best show I have seen to help my two young kids—I really learned something". But a 32-year-old father from Texas explained, "Life is NOT this simple". A Boston family state, "This is just like our dinner time"!

Dr. Kline is not affiliated in any way with Supernanny or Nanny 911. He will answer questions about the shows and address common sense tactics to help our children.

Last weeks Radio Interviews:

KDAK News Talk Radio. Pittsburgh - WBAL News Talk Radio. Washington. D.C. - WBHV Radio. Altoona, Pennsylvania - WMRH Radio. Milwaukee, Wisconsin - KECH Radio. Sun Valley, Idaho - WRKR Radio. Battle Creek, Michigan - KOPN Radio. Columbia, Missouri - WDAY Radio. Fargo, North Dakota.

This is a public service. Dr. Kline is not selling any promotional items or books. Dr. Kline tries to respond within 24 hours to requests.